FORMER PRESIDENT A CAPITAL VISITOR

Engagement to Lunch With Successor in White House.

IS GETTING THINNER.

Will Attend Lincoln Memorial Commission and Engage in Social Functions During His Stay.

Washington June 7.—William Howard Taft, professor of law at Yale, is here gazing upon the scenes that once he surveyed as President of the United Sates. His official business in Washington is to attend the meeting of the Lincoln Memorial Commission on Monday, but more of his time will be taken up in a social way as the luncheon guest today of President and Mrs. Wilson, the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Boardman, and as a participant in golf and a witness of baseball.

Prof. Taft is getting thin.

Not so thin, however, that there is cause for alarm among his host of Washington friends who recall him as a very stout gentleman with a ruddy face and an omnipresent smile.

Prof. Taft had a luncheon engagement for today with the president and Mrs. Wilson. He also has a 10 o'cdock Monday morning engagement to attend the Lincoln Memorial Commission meeting in the office of Shelby Cullom. Tentative plans will be discussed probably in the presence of Henry Bacon, architect of the building.

In case President Wilson signs the sundry civil appropriation bill, former President Taft will be acting as commissioner under a bill which he himself vetoed. Mr. Taft leaves here Tuesday.

EXHAUSTED EVERY RESOURCE.

Rhea And Williams Ordered to Serve Prison Terms.

Richmond, June 6.—After having exhausted every legal resource since they were sentenced a year ago to keep out of prison, John M. Rhea and Luther W. Williams, former manager and distiller, respectively, of the defunct Broad Rock Distillery Company, will be taken today to the federal penitentiary at Atlanta to begin service of their sentences. Rhea will spend eighteen months in the prison, and Williams one year, minus such time as each is allowed by prison rules for good behavior.

The die was cast Wednesday when the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, having received official notice of the refusal by the United States Supreme Court of the writs of certorari for which Rhea and Williams had applied on appeal from the former tribunal, issued a mandate to the Federal District Court affirming its judgment rendered June 13, 1912. The defendants were summoned to appear before Judge Edmund Waddill at 4o'clock yesterday afternoon, and he reaffirmed the sentence pronounced a year ago ordering the prisoners into the custody of Marshal Clarence E. Smithers with instructions to take them to Atlanta without delay.

Under the direction of J. T. Prestion, there will be a most excellent musical and vocal service at the First Baptist Church tomrrow. During the morning service Marshall Dobie, will sing a solo, "Cavalry" and during the evening service there will be a rendition of "O, Lord, how manifold are they works," which will be the first time this has been sung in Alexandria.

The readers of the Gazette can get a large size can of special furniture and piano polish entirely free, which is being given away by the Griffin Furniture Company today and next week. Just cut the coupon from the advertsement in today's Gazette and present the same at their store. It is a regular 25 cent can of a well advertised polish.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

President Wilson has refused to interfere with the death of Nathaniel Green, a negro, who last Christmas night assaulted a white woman almost in the shadow of the dome of the Capitol. Green will hang Monday and will be the first man to pay a death penalty in the District of Columbia for felonious assault.

Disdaining a ransom of $20,000 offered by the friends of Col. Pascual Orozco, father of the former Mexican rebel chief, Emiliano Zapata has caused the old man to be put to death. Orozco's body was found by the federals at Tlachichilpa, near Jojutla, in central Morelos, hanging to a tree, and riddled with bullets.

William Lankford, 40 years of age, a Dover, Del., miller, formerly of Hickman, Md., who, with his wife and five children, had been spending some time in Denton, shot himself in the right temple yesterday morning, dying in about half an hour. Lankford had told several friends that he expected to shoot himself. He also made inquiries about the payment of insurance on the life of a suicide. On Wednesday he was thought to be about to attack his wife, but she escaped. He took a big dose of laudanum Wednesday, but recovered. Yesterday morning he boarded the train for Queen Anne, there bought a 32-calibre pistol, came back on the next train and immediately shot himself.

After many weeks of investigation the board of public education of Pittsburgh, Pa., last night discharged S. L. Heeter, superintendent of public schools, finding him guilty of immorality in making improper advances and taking unwarrantable liberties with women.

These churches are of nine denominations. The speakers will talk upon the uplift of advertising in some way or the other. J., yesterday was sentenced to serve an indeterminate prison sentence of not les than year nor more than fifteen years and to pay a fine of $250 for "inflicting hostility against the government." James A. McNair, ticket agent at the new union depot at Pittsburgh, was shot and killed yesterday, and Rolf E. Pauley, his assistant was seseriously wounded by W. E. Sage, a clerk employed in the station by the Pennsylvania Railroad. Sage is said to have become angered over failure to receive promotion, blaming his illluck upon McNair. Sage then ran through the crowded waiting room and disappeared. He had not been located up to a late hour last night.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, was operated on shortly before noon yesterday at the Episcopal Ear, Eye, and Throat Hospital in Washingnton for a mastoid abscess. Surgeons said his physical condition was such as to promise a speedy recovery. The labor chief was under the anaesthetic a little more than an hour, and rallied strongly from its effect. The surgeons said he had passed through the ordeal very well. They foresaw no complications.

Richard J. Killick, 60 years old, secretary of the Domestic Equipment Company, of Chicago, shot and killed himself in the vaults of the bank in that city yesterday, after making careful disposition of his affairs.

Mrs. Oscar Oliver, 25 years old, and a bride of one month, committed suicied yesterday at her home in Bristol, Tenn., by drinking carbolic acid. A neighbor relates that she had expressed disappointment when her husband failed to kiss her when he left for his work after dinner.

REPUBLICANS MUST PROVE ALLEGATION

TOWNSEND'S CHARGE.

Will Have to Substantiate Reflection Made Against President in Coming Investigation.

Washington,June 7.—Senate Democrats today claimed a stragetic advantage had unwittingly been accorded them by the Republicans as the result of the qualified charge made before the lobby investigating committee by Senator Townsend of Michigan. They had the senator's declaratration that President Wilson was a lobbyist, within the broad sense of the term, because of his activity in behalf of the tariff bill, forced the Republicans in the difficult position of making good on the crarge.

Because Senator Townsend reiterated his declaration that he had no proof of any tariff "'lobbying" by President Wilson, the committee can take no official cognizance of the matter.By adopting the Walsh resolution, permitting recall to the stand of any senator suspected of having been "whipped into line" for the tariff bill. Democrats figured today that they had placed the burden of the proof on the minority.

BATTLE OF NEW ROSS.

Tomorrow Will be The One Hundred and Fifteenth Anniversary.

Tomorrow will the the 115th anniversary of the battle of New Ross, County Wexford, Ireland, which resulted in the Irish completely routing the British after having been repulsed by the enemy four times, amid frightful carnage on both sides. In this conflict the Irish were greatly handicapped by lack of proper arms, and this made the victory doublyearned.

In after years much was said and written about this battle, and perhaps nothing said of it was more appropriate than the following lines delivered in a speech many years afterward, which follow:

"There is no one that has a drop of Irish blood in his veins that need be ashamed of the heroes of '98. They fought for six days and with a very poor outfit of war, only that which they had captured from the enemy."

POLICE AND STRIKERS BATTLE.

Stettin, Getrmany, June 7.—A battle between police and strikers in which 70 persons were severely wounded, was fought Thursday night in the suburbs of Frauendorf as the sequel to the killing of a striker by a nonstriker.

The workers in a chickory factory went on strike some time ago. Thursday evening one of them molested a man who had continued at work and in the fight which ensued, the striker was stabbed and killed. The strikers' comrades later gathered in a great crowd in front of the factory and demanded that the striger be handled over to them. Their request was refused and they threatened to demolish the factory.

The police wer unable to cope with the angry strikers and reinforcements were called for from Stettin. Shortly afterward a body of 300 armed policemen arrived in automobiles from Stettin and a pitched battle between them and the strikers occurred. The police freely used their sabers and revolvers. The strikers replied with pistol shots, but were soon overcome by the disciplined force. They were finally dispersed, leaving many of their number wounded on the ground.

The casualties were in some cases of a sever nature. Ten policemen and about sixty civilians were treated by surgeons during the night.

FINED ONE DOLLAR EACH.

Loiterers on Bank Corner Arraigned Police Court.

Five men were arrested last night by Officer Roland, at the instance of Carroll Pierce, vice-president of the Citizens' National Bank, who charged that loitering on that corner was an annoyance, while the expectorations of the nightly assemblage was repungent to the bank officials, as well as to passersby. He stated that the matter had been discussed by the board of directors, and that the authorities were now called upon to abate the nuisance.

The police stated that complaints had heretofore been received of the annoyance occasioned by the nightly gatherings on that corner.

The accused gave different reasons for loitering on the corner last night. The court stated that the laws made the gathering of persons in any point of the city, which proved to be annoyance,a misdemeanor, impcsed the minimum fine (one dollar) on each.

YOUTH RELEASED.

James Ferris, the 18-year-old youth who was arrested a few days ago and held for the Philadelphia authorities, was released this morning after Chief Goods received a dispatch from that city stating that he was not wanted there. Ferris had, according to his story, left a school conducted by his brother. Upon being brought before the police court he failed to give a satisfactory reason for his appearance in Alexandria and stated that he would proceed to Connecticut if released.

COLORED WOMAN BEATEN.

Assailant Held to Await Result of Injuries Which are Said to be Serious.

Logan Smith, colored, made a vicious attack upon Missouri Baker, also colored, at No. 517 Franklin street, on Wednesday morning. After brutally beating the woman, he returned to the house later in the day and used a bottle upon the object of his wrath. Smith was arrested and in the police court this morning he was ordered to be held to await the result of the woman's injuries.

Dr. Penn, who was called to render surgical assistance, says her condition is serious, as her skull may be fractured.

SPEAKS WELL FOR CITY.

Alexandria and suburban places, which are the outgrowth of Alexandria, embraces about seventeen thousand persons, and during the past four days undertakers have had no deaths to report when newspaper men made their daily calls.

It has often been suggested that our city has much for which to be thankful, not only from the fact that the death rate is small, but also when it is realized that our city has but a few serious visitations in a way of epidemics or convulsions of nature.

While Alexandria follows the even tenor of its way, neither being poor nor rich in a worldly sense, the people enjoy life within our borders as much as any place on the globe, as they are blessed with all necessary adjuncts to life as well as with luxuries and conveniences appertaining to the twentieth century.

Like most Southern cities, it is immune from labor issues and the disorders often accompanying such unfortunate occurrences.

Being within a few minutes ride of Washington, its people enjoy its benefits without being incumbered with the expenses necessary to keep up the extravagance of the capital city.

In connection with the above it may be stated that business in police circles has been remarkably quiet of late. The cases which appear on the docket of the court are generally misdemeanors in which no serious charges are brought.

The bulk of the people of the city are law abiding, most of the cases before the police court recently having been violations of the traffic law or the new statute concerning unmuzzled dogs.

EXTRA SESSION TO BE LONG-LIVED

Tariff Debate Will, it is Said, Continue Several Months.

MAY LAST TILL FALL.

From Present Indications Struggle Will Run Through Dog Days and Into September.

Washington, June 7.—Tariff debate in the Senate will stretch into the dog days and beyond, according to capitol prophets. Adjournment, they said today, may not come before the end of September. Much depends on whether the President's plan for banking and currency legislation shall be carried through.

With the lobby inquiry extended to June 28th, and with new points of difference arising almost hourly in the subcommittee sessions, the majority members of the Finance Committee do not expect to get together before the end of next week.

Two weeks is the average estimate of the period of tariff discussion in the caucus. This would allow the measure to reach the Senate floor by the beginnig of July. Since twenty Republican senators have served notice on their party caucus that they intend to deliver speeches, and that Senator LaFollette is to consume a week, and Senator Cummin's nearly as long,, in presenting arguments against the Wilson-Underwood schedules, the date for final roll call before conference is now set at about August 10.

After that must come the fight in conference and perhaps a currency measure.

DEADLOCK AS FIRM AS EVER.

The report in circulation today to he effect that the clouds which have hovered over both ends of the City hall building since last week were about to break is wihout foundation, according to those in positions to know.

Messrs. Marbury and Brumback held several conferences yesterday, but no agreement was reached; hence no meeting of Council was held last night, as had been proposed had an amicable adjustment been reached.

The deadlock today seemed to be as firm as ever.

CONFIRM REPORT.

Washington, June 7.—It was definitely decided at the cabinet meeing held yesterday morning to appoint Thomas Nelson Page ambassador to Italy and Joseph E. Willard is minister to Belgium.

When President Wilson called at the Capitol Thursday he asked Senators Swanson and Martin if the appointment of these two men would be satisfactory to them, and they replied that it was "very satisfactory." To put and end to the discussion which had been ripe for some time, that it was impossible for both Page and Willard to be appointed to the diplomatic corps, and that the appointment of Page would be a direct defeate for the "Progressives," of Virginia, or the appointment of Willard would indicate that the President was opposed to the "organization."

Neither, it can be said, has exerted any great efforts to defeat the appointment of the other, feeling condent that Virginia could secure the appointment of both.

Mr. Page has been a close friend of President Wilson for many years, and his appointment has been urged by Senators Martin and Swanson and a number of other prominent Virginians and men of prominence outside the State.

It will probably be two weeks before the nominations are sent to the senate, as it is customary to consult the countries to which they are to be sent whether their appointment is satisfactory so as to prevent the extreme embarrassment which would occur should an ambassador after appointment be found to be persona grata.

RECIPROCITY FOR AUTOS.

Owners of Machines Meet in Rooms of Chamber of Commerce and Discuss Situation

A meeting of the automobile owners of the city and vicinity was held last night in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of establishing reciprocal relations between the authorities of Virginia and the District of Columbia.

An organization was effected with the election of these officers: George D .Hopkins, president; William A. Moore, secretary; H. D. Kirk, treasurer.

The committee on legislation will take up this question at an early date. Another meeting of the association will be held Thursday night next in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, when a report, it is expected, may be made by this committee. The committee on legislation is composed of George D. Hopkins, chairman; H. D. Kirk, W. A. Moore, Harry Hamomnd, and Robert Green.

A committee was also named for highways. This committee will, it is announced, look after the highways in this section, and cause to be posted signs at points of danger and make efforts for the improvement of bad roads here and elsewhere.

This committee is composed of R. L. Myers, chairman; Wallace Lindsey, R .D. Brumback, W. H. Hellmuth and George Washington Lewis.

The meeting was attended by a number of automobilists of the city, all of whom manifest great interest over the steps thus far taken. It is generally believed that eventually all of the automobile owners of the city will enjoin in the movement.

This meeting was tentative and the promoters of the movement called it simply for the purpose of acting on the important matters which came before them and they hope to amalgamate with the members of the local Automobile Association, many of the members of that association being present at he meeting last night.

The auto committee of the Chamber of Commerce expect to affiliate with the Auto Club of Alexandria, and all work together in the interest of those concerned.

During the meeting attention was called to the mischievous practice of children in the county throwing sticks and stones at passing automobiles.

Avis, who was arrested in Washington a few days ago charged with stealing a cow in Alexandria county, is still at the station house in this city, the county authorities having failed to come after him. chette testified that he merely rized to the young lady when ve her a $5 bill in payment for nt glas of "dope." He saw offensive in this, as it was ustom to make apology when ing a rather large bill in such es. He said he had only 4 cents his pocket besides the $5 note.

S .H. Walthall, assistant manager the store, was sure that Burch- te's remarks went beyond the unds of prpriety. He strongly rroborated the testimony given by he young lady.

W .R.Peyton, who was arrested on e same charge, was acquitted, the vidence showing that he had merely ntered the place in company with urchette and made no remarks to he girl.

It is understood that Burchette has st his position since he was arrest- d. He says he came here from North arolina.

While penalizing the young man, ustice Crutchfield took occasion to emark that he proposed to ask it to hashers whenever he had the oppor- unity.

AMUSED BY BURGLARS.

Lad Watches Midnight Intruder Search for Money.

Portsmouth, Va., June 7.—One of the boldest burglaries of recent years was committed here recently. A white man entered the house of W. T. Roberts, of 309 Webster avenue, and ransacked the rooms, drawers of bureaus and other furniture. Before the intruder had completed his search of the house the little nephew of Mr. Roberts surprised him and asked him if he was looking for his Uncle Tom. The burglar replied and said that he was. "Well," said the youngster, "he will not be home until tonight." At the same time the man continued his search, amusing the child during the time.

After going through all of the rooms in the house he went out the back door and the child walked with him a few blocks, when she was sent back.

The child went next door and informed Mrs. Roberts of the incident. Mrs. Roberts immediately went home and found that about $13 of her money had been taken and $4 belonging to a charitable fund which her daughter had collected was likewise taken by the thief. Nothing else was disturbed, and the jewelry of both Mrs. Roberts and daughter was left intact, although the rooms and bureau drawers were left in disorder by the robber. The police were immediately notified.

Methodist Rap Liquor.

Lynchburg, Va., June 7.—The Lynchburg District Conference of the Methodist Conference of the Methodist Church, in session at Madison Heights, severely criticises the Virginia State Fair management for maintaining a barroom on the grounds during the fair.

Conference takes the stand that if the fair is to be operated in the interest of the liquor dealers the directors have no right to call it a state fair, but rather that it should be known as a Richmond Institution.

The resolution urges Methodists and all other Christians to refrain from patronizing the fair if it maintains a saloon in the future.

The resolution endorses the work of the State Ant-Salon League.

Richmond, June 7.—The boycott of the Virginia state fair by the anti-liquor forces because of the sale of whisky and beer on the ground during fair week is spreading. Fast upon the heels of a resolution adopted by the Men's League of the First Baptist Church May 28, protesting against the sale of liquor at the fair, and urging its members to refrain from attending the exhibition so long as the present policy of the association is maintained, comes the announcement of a similar resolution passed by the Bi-County Woman's Christian Temperance Union Convention in Tabernacle Baptist Church yesterday. The opening clause in the resolution condemns the director of the fair. It reads, in part: "It is useless to appeal to these gentlemen on moral grounds against their engaging in the liquor business at the fair." The conventoin pledges itself as individuals to remain away from the fair and to encourage others in doing so.

SPEEDER IS IN JAIL.

Norfolk Police Conduct Vigorous Prosecutions Against Offenders.

Norfolk, Va., June 7.—That the Norfolk speed law must be upheld holding the limit of automobiles to twelve miles an hour in the city was signalized very forcibly in the corporation court Thursday when two fines of $100 each and one of $25 were imposed, with a jail sentence of ten days for one of the defendants. A second of the defendants went to jail until the $100 fine could be paid.

The cases disposed of were those of Joseph Bow, a negro chauffeur for R. E. Jordan, fined $100 and costs and given ten days in jail for speeding through Monticello avenue; Herman Woodley, a negro chauffeur for Burke & Gregory, fined $100 and cost for speeding on Granby street and E. L. Silvester, fined $25 and cost for speeding in Park Place.

The police conducted vigorous prosecutions, and Judge Hanckel upheld the speed law in every sense.

THE NEW ASSOCIATION.

The meeting of the automobile owners at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce last night, resulted in an organiaztion which may prove of excellent service to this city and the surrounding rural territory. They should amalgamate with the local automobile association and effect a permanent organization, composed of as many local motorists as they can induce to join it. The plan to bring about reciprocal license arrangements between the State of Virginia and the District of Columbia is one in which the State authorities should be willing to co-operate.

However, such an association can prove of inestimable value to this city and our rural neighbors in another way, if it will agitate the question of better highways leading to this city. The automobile industry has given a wonderful impetus to the movement of good roads, and the administrations of our last thre governors have been active in encouraging Virginia counties in the direction of road improvements.

The question is one of vital importance to our near neighbors of Fairfax and Alexandria counties, who, thus far, have not been as progressive along this line as our motorists have desired. A farmer traveling to town with his produce knows as well as any one else the advantage of smooth, well-built highways. The city merchant, anxious for rural trade, is glad to have travel made easy for his country customers. Urban and rural communities unite in the desire for good roads and then let the months pass by without any well organized attempt or efforts to better the conditions. We are in accord with the local motorists in their new work and wish them much power in their undertakings.

MR. CARLIN INVITED TO ADDRESS TAMMANY.

The Democratic organization of New York City has invited Representative C. C. Carlin to deliver a patriotic address to the Tammany Hall Democracy on the afternoon of July 4th. The invitation was extended by the Executive Committee of Tammany Hall.

The occasion is the principal democratic gathering of each year and only orators of national reputation are given the opportunity to discuss national issues from a Democratic stand point, and are never invited but once. They are never given the opportunity to answer an encore, and their Democracy is measured by the New York press by the single effort. All of Greater New York rich and poor, great and small, congregate on this occasion to hear the virtues of our nation extolled. The occasion is one of national importance, the Chief Sacham of Tammany Hall always presides, and all the real leaders of the great city and state are present. The Southern-born Democrats residing in New York forego all other pleasures to be present.

Mr. Carlin has accepted the invitation, and if he is up to his usual standard, the Democracy of New York will not be disappointed. We wish we could go. Representative Oscar Underwood delivered the address last year, and won the support of the New York Democracy for the presidential nomination.

NEWSPAPERS CONSOLIDATE.

Somebody up in Harrisonburg, Va., spent close on to $50,000 to find that there was not a field for another newspaper in that town, and in consequence there is one less daily in the State of Virginia. During the past week the Daily News and the Rockingham Record consolidated under the joint title of the News-Record The Record has had a hard row to follow since its establishment two years ago although it was made an excellent newspaper and its circulation forced to over 7,00 copies every day.

Alexander Forward, of the Richmond Times-Dispatch will be the new editor and it is announced that the paper will be independent and all factional differences will be ignored.

BIBLE SCATTERED O'ER THE EARTH.

The forecast, " The word of the Lord shall cover the earth, as the waters cover the sea," has been fulfilled in ane way, according to an article in a cotemporary which says.

"It would be difficult to determine the extent to which the Bible is read nowadays. It is certain that it is not quoted so frequently as it was a generation and more ago by public speakers or by individuals in private conversation, and there is not as a rule the same direct application of its texts to the affairs of everyday lift But the report of the American Bible Society shows that copies of the Bible are distributed in rapidly increasing numbers in foreign lands and the assumption is a fair one that the copies are read by those who are sufficiently interested to secure them The Bible, or parts of it, has been translated into the language of not fewer than 450 peoples, and the circulation in book form has reached an output of 7,899,562 copies, made up of 936,846 unabridged Bibles, 1,266,919 New Tesaments and 5,696,297 smaller parts. Ten new versions were added by the American Bible Society last year. In Japan and India there was an increase over last year's distribution of more than 10 per cent But it is in China that the agents of the society, find their best field, and there, for every two English copies three Testaments or Bibles in the Chinese language were disposed of."

An actor is being sued for divorce by his twelfth wife. He ought to make it a baker's dozen for luck.

A New York judge, in freeing a woman, said, that he would have acted differently in the case of a man. Very naturally, in this day of hunger strikes. Yet Dorothy Dix denounces him bitterly in the New York Journal The judge really oughnt' to take it seriously, for Dorothy has to rave about something every day to earn her salary.

It is freely predicted that the English polo team is going to beat our boys in the coming international match. Such blawsted, blooming treatment from our British visitors is a bally shame.

Lightning tore a brass chandelier and electric light fixtures from the fastening and scattered them about the floor in the room where Miss Amy L. Kohlsaate, of New York, lay sleeping at the country place of her father, in Stockbridge, Mass., Tuesday night. The bolt struck the house on the corner, near the room of Miss Kohlsaat's sister, Miss Edith, and set fire to the woodwork. Both rooms seemed to be filled with fire, but both young women escaped with severe shocks. The fire was extinguished after doing about $1,000 worth of damage.

OUR NEXT GOVERNOR.

Henry C. Stuart, the Unanimous Choice of The State.

Henry Carter Stuart, the unanimous choice of the Democratic party, will be elected Governor of Virginia on November th, and will take office on February 1st next, for a term of four years.

The absence of any contest is a remarkable tribute to the man, and the great confidence wihch the people of Virginia have in him is shown by the fact that no political leader was willing to undertake at this juncture a primary campaign against him before the Democrats of the State.

Whether the Republican party will put up an opposition candidate for governor is still in doubt, and will make no difference in the result, such a campaign, if made, being only to gather the scattered fragments of that party vote rather than with any hope of winning office.

Few men in public life are more widely known and few, if any, have as clean a record as Mr. Stuart. That his term of office will add luster to the already distinguished line of men who have held the office of governor of Virginia since Colonial days is conceded. Not in many years have the various factions of the Democratic party been in such harmony. While not accused of being a "machine" man Mr. Stuart has proven an acceptable candidate, both to the organization and to those who have constantly opposed machine rule. He will poll the united vote of the Democracy of Virginia, as no man has done since the primary system was introduced.

Not since the convention of 1897 in Roanoke, has the State been so well agreed on its choice in advance of the election. In that year Lieut-Governor J. Taylor Ellyson was mentioned as a probable candidate against J. Hoge Tyler, of Radford. Before the convention assembled it was apparent that Mr. Tyler was the choice of the majority, and Mr. Ellyson himself seconded his nomination, no other name being offered. The last time that a Democratic candidate for Governor was named in convention was in 1901, in the memorable Swanson-Montague fight, in which Governor Montague was declared the nominee. Four years later Messrs. Swanson, Mann and Willard ran in a triangular primary, the first of its kind ever held in this state Swanson winning the nomination.

Retired From Race.

Four years ago Mr. Stuart was prominently to the front as a candidate for governor. Judge William Hodges Mann was again in the field and was opposed by H. St. George Tucker, of Lexington. Mr. Stuart had just closed a successful term on the Corporation Commission, and was widely known through the State as a formidable candidate. His headquarters had been opened and his campaign launched when a cablegram informed him of the serious illness of his wife in Paris. Without hesitation Mr. Stuart dropped his personal ambition, retired from the campaign, left immediateliy for Europe, and remained with his wife until she was so far recovered that he could bring her back to this country.

Three years ago the Democracy of the Ninth Congressional District called on Mr. Stuart to aid in a fight to redeem the Ninth District from Republican rule. With some personal regret, he accepted the duty imposed upon him, making a memorable though unsucessful campaign against Congressman C. Bascomb Slemp, which, though it did not succeed in making a solid Democratic Congressional delegation from Virginia, did win for him the gratitude of the Democratic party in Virginia and cut down the Republican majority below the safety point. More than a year ago the State was greatly alarmed at reports of the serious illness of Mr. Stuart, and he finally was operated on, and his recovery has been complete.

For a year past he has been regarded as the logical candidate for the governorship—the standard bearer of Democracy. H. St. George Tucker, who ran against Governor Mann four years ago, waived his claim to preferment at the hands of the party at this time, though his friends believe he will be heard from in some future campaign. Westmoreland Davis, of Leesburg, was mentioned as a possibility because of his prominence in farmers' organizations, but he has expressed himself as content to go on raising fat cattle and fighting for agricultural lime.

Active Business Man.

Mr. Stuart himself is something of a farmer, owning and operating one of the largest cattle ranches in south-W. Virginia, covering a considerable portion of Russell county. He initiated the shipping of Virginia beef cattle to England, and today "Russell beef" may be found on the menus of exclusive London hotels.

Mr. Stuart will be fifty-nine years of age when he takes the oath of office on February 1Next, He was born at Wytheville, Wythe county, Va., on January 18, 1855. His parents were William Alexander Stuart and Mary Taylor Carter. His father was descended from Archibald Stuart, who was of Scotch descent, but who came from this country to Londenberry, Ireland, in 1776, settled in Pennsylvania, and in 1732 moved to Augusta county, Va. His son Alexander Stuart, was a major in the Revolutionary war, and had a son, Alexander Stuart, who was territorial judge of Missouri by appointment of President Thomas Jefferson. His son, Archibald Stuart, was a member of Congress and a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1829-30 and 1850-51. He married Elizabeth Letcher and had six children, of whom Gen. J. E. B. Stuart of the Confederate Army, was one, and William Alexander Stuart, father of the next governor, was another. William Alexander Stuart was a man of business capacity and great liberality. He was engaged in manufacturing and general business, and amassed a considerable fortune.

Henry Stuart's Early Career.

Henry Stuart lost his mother at the age of seven years. In childhood his tastes were outdoor sports and agricultural pursuits. After an attendance of several years upon private schools, he entered the Emory and Henry College, from which he graduated in 1874 with the degree of A. B. He took a one-year course in law at the University of Virginia, after which in 1875 he entered business as an assistant to his father. As president of the Stuart Land and Cattle Company, of the Citizens National Bank of the Buckhorn Iron and Improvement Company, and vice-president of the Prudential Fire Insurance Company, he has been deeply engrossed with the development of Southwest Virginia, and has acquired large interests in lands and cattle, mining properties and other enterprises.

Mr. Stuart first came into prominent statewide notice as a member of the State Constitutional Convention of 1901-1902. In 1903 he was appointed by Governor Montague a member of the Corporation Commission for the long, or six-year term, expiring in 1908, and he had much to do with the organization of that body and the laying down of the precedents and methods on which it has since conducted the business committed to it. He is a former member of the board of visitors of the University of Virginia and of the William and Mary College. In religious preference Mr. Stuart is a Methodist. In politics he has always been a staunch Democrat. He is a member of the Society of Sons of Revolution, the D. K. E. Fraternity, and of the Westmoreland and Commonwealth Clubs in Richmond. Having made his home in Richmond during his term in the Constitutional Convention and while in the Corporation Commission, he has a wide personal acquaintance there. He married Mary Bruce Carter on February 26, 1896, and has one child.

Trustees and Commissioner's Sale of Residue.

Trustees' sale of the residue of the "Belvoir" or "White House" tract of land located in Mt. Vernon magisterial District Fairfax county Va. containing approximately 1100 acres with improvements.

By virtue of the authority vested in us by the will of Philip Otterback deceased, and under decree of the Circuit Court of Fairfax County, Va., in the suit of Otterback vs. Bohrer, at its March and May terms, 1913, the undersigned trustees and commissioners will offer for sale at public auction in front of the Royal street entrance to the Market House in Alexandria Va., at

This tract, the old home of Lord Fairfax and separated from George Washington's home at Mt. Vernon by Dogue Creek, originally consisted of approximately twenty-seven hundred (2,700) acres, of which 1,500 acres has been taken by the United States government for a school of Equitation of Horsemanship. The balance, between ten and twelve hundred acres consists of valuable farming lands and about eight hundred (800) acres of valuable timber. It has a large deep water frontage on the Potomac river as well as a large frontage on Dogue Creek, with valuable fishing shores. The property is improved by an old mansion house, familiarly known for many years as the "White House," a club house, barns, stables, out-buildings and tenant houses. It is situated on the county road between Mt. Vernon and Accotink, and is about four miles by road from Mt. Vernon. This property is one of the most historic in the section and would make a very desirable country estate because of its location and the opportunities afforded for fishing and shooting.

Terms of Sale:—One-third cash and residue in three equal annual payments in one, two and three years from the date of the confirmation of the sale with interest from the said date of the confirmation of sale at the rate of six per cent. per annum interest payable semi-annually with right to anticipate the time of paying the deferred payments secured by retention of title till paid.

A survey is to be made to ascertain the acreage. This will be ready on the day of sale.

The bidding will be valued or started at $26,525.

WIDOW CHANGED MIND.

On Way to be Married She Thought of Another Man.

Wilmington, Del. June 7.—The romance of which Mrs. Emma Lake, of McKeesport, and Charles H. Clewell, of Newcastle, Del., were the principals, ended abruptly here yesterday. The couple, a dashing widow of 35, and a widower of 55 years, were not married, as had been planned.

Clewell, an undertaker and a prominent Democratic leader, went to McKeesport several days ago to take his fiancee to Newcastle, Del. The couple stopped off at Washington, where Major Chauncey P. Holcomb, also of Newcastle, secretary to United States Caulsbury, of Delaware, gave them a wedding dinner.

They then started for Wilmington. Clewell saw, after leaving Washington, that the prospective bride was down hearted. She finally admitted that she was worried because of another man in McKeesport upon whom she looked with favor. The cause of her sudden change of mind was not explained. When this city was reached ,a change of cars was necessary to go to Newcastle. Mrs. Lake declined to alight and continued on to Philadelphia, where she presumably took another train for nome. Clewell went home.

Although the bride was missing, the groom that was to be gave a wedding dinner at his home yesterday. A number of relatives and friends who had been invited to attend the marriage were present.

A large number of Clewell's friends had arranged to serenade him with a band, but this detail was cancelled. Clewell repainted and refurnished his home in Newcastle and had everything in readiness for the new mistress.

He now has a marriage license on his hands for which he paid $3 before taking the futile trip to McKeesport. He was the Democratic nominee for coroner of Newcastle county at the election last fall.

Wholesale Murder.

"I'm glad it's over with, and my only sorrow is that I killed my baby. For the rest I have no regrets."

This was the remark yesterday of Robert Reach, the man who shot and killed his mother-in-law, sister-in-law, and child and badly wounded another sister-in-law and a police sergeant in Canton, Ohio, Thursday night.

Reach, after being subdued and captured in a desperate fight following his career of carange, slept soundly all night in the county jail without the evidence of a single trace of nightmare as the result of his bloody work.

He will be arranged in the criminal court later on a charge of first-degree murder.

His wife, whose leaving him and going to her father's home was the cause of his murderous course, went to the jail yesterday and kissed her husband, good-by, but did not talk to him.

A triple funeral for the three dead probably will be held tomorrow.

PLANNING FOR HOME-COMING.

Norfolk, Va., June 7.—Business men and representatives of various organizations throughout the state are discussing a plan for a great home-coming in 1915 of Virginians who have left their native state. If it is carried out it will give the Commonwealth an impetus that will set it in the lead among many other states. According to the last figures it was estimated that there were 2,464,854 natives in Virginia in the United States in 1910, 1,843,152 in the State and 621,693 residing in other states.

Statistics given by the Manufacturers' Record show that there were 188,886 natives in other states in Virginia at the same time, making the native population 2,032,038. In the interchange of population, the balance against Virginia was 432,807.

Of the total number of Virginians outside of the State 271,441 were residing outside the South and 355,382 in other Southern States.

Storm in Page County.

Luray, Va., June 7.—A destructive electric storm accompanied in many parts by heavy wind and hail that cu gardens and cornfields to pieces over the southern part of Luray district Wednesday evening at a late hour. The width of the storm was not more than a half mile. Streams are out of their banks and all kinds of traffic is crippled. Cornfields are so badly washed that many of them will have to be planted over. The storm completed the damage which had been wrought by a series which had visited this country within the past week.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework.

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.
